The above speaks for itself. From strict inquiry it appears that the benefit from using Kenting's Cough Lozenges understated. The operation was a specialist, Dr. Butlin, of St. Earthologues's Hospital. Since the operation the only means of relief is the use of these Lozenges. Bo successful are they that one affords immediate benefit, although from the nature of the cases the throat irritation is intense. ITTHE business of the above Bank is con-

"84, Commercial Boad, Peckham, July 12. "Bear Sir.—I am a poor hand at expressing my feelings, but I should like to thank you. Your lozenges have done wonders in relieving my terrible count. Since I had the operation of "Trachectomy" (the same as the late Emperor of Germany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive) performed at St. Barthelomew's Hospital, no one could possibly have had a more violent cough; it was so but at times that it quite enhanted me. The mucus, which was very copious and hard, has been softened, and I have been able to get rid of it without difficulty.—I am, sir, yours truly, J. HILL."

The appointments of the officers of the Hongkong Regiment are gezetted as follows .- The undermentioned officers of the Indian Staff Corps are appointed to the Hongkong Regiment :- To be Commandant Major E. G. Barrow, with the local rank of Lieutenant-Colonel in China and Hongkong whilst so employed. To be Wing Commanders : Capt. H. T. Faithfull, with the local rank of Major in China and Hongkong whilst second in command; and Capt. J. M. A. Retallick. To be Wing Officers: 1258 Capt. R. H. Dawson, Lieut. W. C. M. Woodcock, Lient. M. R. E. Ray, Lieut. E. L. C. Berger, and Lieut. E C. Rowcroft. Tobe Adjutant : Lieut. W. C. M. Woodcock. To be Quartermaster : Lieut. M. R. E. Ray. The Globe says that Major Barrow, who was highly recommended to the Colonial Office by Lord Roberts for the post of Commandant, will be called upon to report on the qualifications of his subordinates, and that as the Colonial Office may probably orests other corps cleawhers on the same principle. it is intended to carefully watch this experiment and all connected with it.

ADDITIONAL particulars have come to hand It is believed that Parliament will be of the Zambesi-Wetmere salvage once, the decision in which was briefly recorded in our issue of last night. Judge Dealy has awarded . $20,00) American, $7,000 of which go to the owners, $5000 to Captain Edwards, $1000 for division amongst the three officers, $2000 to the pilot, and $5000 for division amongst the rest of the crew. The apportionment of the money has given rise to much discussion in shipping oiroles. The value of the Wetmore was $120,000 and of her cargo $750,000. As a rule, in British Courts the rate of salvage is fixedat 10 per cent of the total value, and where there is any risk to life at about one-third. In this case there was considerable risk to the Zambest. A strong gale was blowing when the disabled whaleback was met, and average prices paid for Teas during the she was towed to Portland, Oregon, a dietance of nearly 40 miles under these unfavourable conditions. It was 20 miles to the bar where the pilot was stripped, and some are inclined to consider that his abare of the money awarded is altogether too.

The last report of the China Association pointed out as a remarkable fact that, while it had over thirty members resident Japan, barely half-a dozen residents China and Hongkong had thought desirable to join an Association established in London especially for the protection of British interests in the Far East, The Straits Association, on the other hand has its greatest strength in the East. It is the branch in Singapore which suggests to the branch in London that certain action is desired. And the time would seem to have come when British residents in China, Ho gkong, and Japan, would do well to associate themselves on a similar basis. Special meetings of British residents in Yokobama and Shanghai were held to protest, respectively, against the approhended term of Treaty Revision in Japan and against the amalgumation of the But, for current purposes, the Chambers of Commerce are the only existent organisations; and, how identica socyer the interests of a commonditan community may be, there is no doubt that our Foreign Office would be disposed to look more attentively at a communication from an exclusively British body. In the case of the Straits, the London and Eastern branches are, we believe, so far separate that each has an independent organization, though they are, of course, in close sympathy and communication. There may be reas no why the China Association had better form a comprehenaive whole, but in one way or other, the matter should certainly be taken up.
